

QUALITY POLICY

Killerdeals is a market leader in online sales of consumer goods.

We offer the widest range of products & accessories for major brands for wearable's, mobile devices, action cameras and outdoor products.

Killerdeals management is committed to:

- Maintaining documented information,
- implementing quality standards based on what the law tells us and on what Killerdeals management has agreed to do,
- Always be improving the way we offer our services to our customers,
- Look after our suppliers and other people who offer us services and keep the quality risks low or not have them at all,
- Be the best at what we do, and in doing so, Killerdeals improves the lives of their employees, their families, the local communities and all the people that Killerdeals staff meet and help,
- Continually evaluating & improving the QMS system by seeing if it is still relevant to the business, and
- Setting quality objectives that must be checked every now and then to make sure we are on the right track and if not; to correct our actions and set new objectives.

To ensure that this policy is implemented, maintained, and continually improved, Killerdeals will ensure:

- That this policy is effectively communicated, fully understood, and applied by all Killerdeals employees, customers, and contractors;
- That this policy is made available to the public or relevant interested parties upon request; and
- That this policy is regularly reviewed for continual suitability, adequacy, and effectiveness.
